

MONTHLY CROSS-CURRICULUM CONNECTIONS

- Each month you will demonstrate your ability to connect reading and writing to learning in other classrooms, your home and the world around you.
- You will be expected to create four different examples each month.
- Examples will come from one of the following: Science or Social Studies textbook, newspaper, magazine, television, online, etc.
- Examples will relate to the monthly topic, have a title, visual, written explanation and color.

SEPTEMBER: Social Studies

- Maps
- Population
- Religion
- Culture/Traditions

OCTOBER: Science

- Weather & Climate in various areas around the world
- Ocean Activity
- Predicting & Forecasting Weather Conditions
- Water Cycle

NOVEMBER: Social Studies

- Government
- Economy
- Politics
- Political Cartoon

DECEMBER: Science

- Health (germs, DNA)
- Moon Phases
- Planets/Space Exploration
- Astronomy
- Astrology

JANUARY: Social Studies

- Human Rights
- Political Choices
- Military/Nuclear Armaments

FEBRUARY: Science

- Electricity
- Magnetism

MARCH: Social Studies

- Trade
- Agriculture
- Education

APRIL: Science

- Sound
- Light
- Plants

MAY: Social Studies

- Countries in Europe