

Summer Camps for Kids

There are a number of learning opportunities for children throughout the summer. Summer camps are great ways for kids to improve on academic skills, develop athletic skills, create new hobbies, and develop lasting friendships.

Check out some of the options for summer camps in our local area.

1. Jackson County Intermediate School District, Jackson

Contact the JCISD at 768-5200. Visit the website at www.jacksonisd.com. They offer a variety of camps ranging from construction skills to babysitting skills.

2. YMCA Storer Resident Camps, Napoleon

Contact Sharon Shirey at 517-536-8607. Visit the website at [www.ymcastorer camps.org](http://www.ymcastorer camps.org). Camp opportunities range from developing independence, making friends, high ropes course, horseback riding, sailing, kayaking, GPS exploration and more.

3. Jackson Community College, Jackson

Contact Ellen Young at 517-796-8582. Visit the website at www.jccmi.edu. They offer programs in acting/theater, art and music.

4. Ella Sharp Museum of Art and History, Jackson

Contact Amy Wellington at 517-787-2320. Visit the website at www.ellasharp.org. The park is offering many different educational camps on art appreciation and art exploration.

5. Somerset Beach Campground, Somerset Beach

Contact Youth Camp Registrar at 517-688-3783. Visit the website at www.somersetbeach.org. They offer a wide variety of young teen camps ranging in different exploration activities.

6. Camp O' the Hills, Brooklyn

Contact Lori Vetovec at 517-784-8543. This is a residential camp that offers activity programs for girl scouts.

7. Columbia Community Education, Brooklyn

Contact the CCE at 517-529-9400. Students will have opportunities to further develop athletic skills through the variety of sport camps offered.

8. Many of our local school and universities offer a wide range of sport and athletic training camps. Contact the school for specific details, times and locations.

Summer Camps Website

<http://www.summercamps.com>

This website is a great tool for parents. It offers a variety of camp opportunities. In addition, the website provides information for parents in preparing to find the right camp for your family.